Frank Juarez brings twenty years of art education and arts management experience organizing local and regional art exhibitions, spearheading community art events, presenting on art education at the local, state, and national level, supporting artists through grant programs, and facilitating professional development workshops. This has placed him in the forefront of promoting Wisconsin artists, networking, and attracting regional, national, and international artists to collaborate and exhibit in Wisconsin.

Juarez is an award-winning art educator, artist, author, presenter, arts advocate, and former gallery director. He is actively involved with the Wisconsin Art Education Association and the National Art Education Association. He has served as a board member on the following arts organizations: Milwaukee Artist Resource Network, Arts Wisconsin, and the Cedarburg Cultural Center. He has presented at local universities, colleges, galleries, and artist groups on Professional Practices for Artists: Business of Art. He is the founder of two projects focused on contemporary art and art education called The Midwest Artist Studios and 365 Artists 365 Days Project. In 2013, he founded Artdose Magazine and Artdose Magazine Weekly art e- newsletter. In 2015, he was awarded the 2015 Wisconsin Art Education Association Teacher of the Year and in 2016, awarded the 2016 National Art Education Association Wisconsin Art Educator of the Year. In 2018, he was elected to serve on the National Art Education Foundation Board of Trustees and has been awarded the 2018 Herb Kohl Educational Foundation Teacher Fellows Award. In 2019, Juarez has been awarded the 2019 National Art Education Association National Secondary Art Educator Award. In 2020, he joined the Milwaukee Artist Resource Network (MARN) Curatorial Advisory Committee. Recently, he joined the Bergstrom-Mahler Museum of Glass Board of Directors.

Frank Juarez is the art department chair at Sheboygan North High School , contributing editor of SchoolArts Magazine, and publisher of Artdose Magazine.
